Summary

MEDICAL COST SHARING

Our membership is based on the voluntary principle of medical cost sharing. Through this community-driven model, members contribute toward each other's eligible medical expenses, helping to reduce the financial burden of healthcare while promoting a more affordable approach to managing medical costs.

This summary is a general reference. For detailed information on eligibility, shareable expenses, and specific conditions, please review the Healthsharing Community Guidelines applicable to your membership.

HOW IT WORKS

Monthly Contributions:

Members make regular monthly payments, which fund the shared pool for medical expenses.

Medical Needs:

When you have medical expenses, you submit a sharing request through our MPB Health app or member portal.

Member Responsibility Amount (MRA):

Your MRA is the amount you're responsible for paying toward an eligible medical event before additional eligible expenses become shareable.

2-MRA Limit:

Each household is responsible for a maximum of two MRAs within a rolling 12-month period. After two MRAs are satisfied, additional eligible incidents exceeding $1,000 will be shared completely without an additional MRA requirement (excluding pre-existing and maternity needs).

Community Sharing:

After your MRA is met, remaining eligible medical expenses are shared among the community.

Self-Pay Patient:

Members identify as self-pay to providers, which helps obtain better rates and discounts, benefiting the entire community.

Pre-Existing Conditions:

Conditions displaying symptoms, tracking, or treatment within 12 months prior to membership are subject to a phase-in schedule:

- Year 1: Up to $5,000 maximum sharing limit
- Year 2: Up to $30,000 maximum sharing limit
- Year 3: Up to $75,000 maximum sharing limit
- Year 4: Up to $150,000 maximum sharing limit

Eligibility & Guidelines:

There are specific sharing guidelines determining eligible expenses, preventive care coverage, and certain limitations or waiting periods.

IMPORTANT REMINDER:

Contact Concierge BEFORE scheduling procedures.

Maternity Sharing

Eligibility:

Conception must occur at least 30 days after the membership start date. Pregnancies existing prior to active membership are not eligible.

Member Responsibility Amount (MRA):

Expectant mothers pay a single MRA for all related eligible expenses. Requests must be submitted within 30 days of pregnancy confirmation.

Prenatal & Postnatal Allowance:

Up to $6,000 per request (plus an extra $1,000 if diagnosed as high-risk) for routine prenatal services, labs, ultrasounds, doulas, and midwives.

Newborn Enrollment:

Newborns must be added within 30 days of birth. If born under an eligible maternity request, NICU services are shareable for up to 35 days.

Submitting Bills:

Submit maternity-related bills promptly after receiving medical services to ensure sharing consideration.

Review your Member Guidelines carefully for detailed information related to maternity sharing.

If total maternity-related expenses stay under $10,000, your personal Member Responsibility Amount (MRA) will be reduced by $1,500 as a reward for using fair-cost providers!

Psychiatry:

- Initial Intake Appointment: $205
- Follow-Up/Maintenance Appointments: $100 per session

Includes 1 free metabolic panel:

As part of your Virtual Primary Care access, you'll receive one complimentary Complete Metabolic Panel (CMP). This simple blood test measures 14 key markers to provide valuable insights into your overall health.

How does this work?

1. Schedule a Virtual Primary Care Visit in the MPB Health App
2. Speak with Your Doctor – Your doctor will review your eligibility and order your free CMP lab test.
3. Complete Your Lab Work – Visit a participating lab near you to complete your blood draw.
4. Review Your Results – Your doctor will review the results with you (virtually) and discuss any recommended next steps for your health.

WHAT IS THE BEST PRACTICE WHEN I HAVE A/AN:

Small Medical Need

Use virtual health via the MPB Health app to access primary care physicians, urgent care, behavioral health, dermatology, and mental health professionals.

Large Medical Need

If you believe your medical expenses may exceed your selected Member Responsibility Amount (MRA), contact the MPB Concierge as soon as possible.

For scheduled surgeries and other non-emergency procedures, please notify us before receiving care. We'll help confirm eligibility, provide guidance throughout the process, and work with you to identify fair-cost providers whenever possible.

Be sure to request an itemized bill from your provider and submit your Sharing Request, along with any required documentation, as soon as possible. Related medical expenses must accumulate to your MRA within six months of the initial date of service to establish eligibility.

When receiving care, present yourself as a self-pay (cash-pay) patient and ask for the best available cash price, as this can often result in significant savings.

Your Member Responsibility Amount (MRA) is the amount you are responsible for paying toward an eligible medical event before additional eligible expenses may become shareable. For complete details, please refer to your Member Guidelines
